

Year 5

Science: Animals including Humans

How does a human change?

What do we know about stages of life?

How does age relate to development?

How do we measure development?

What learning takes place from birth to starting school?

How have I developed?

How can we investigate growth?